Leath Case Argued

The case of George Leath, who was convicted in the lower court of murdering Mrs. Lucretia Jones at Oregon City, in September, 1904, was argued before the supreme court yesterday. Leath was sentenced to be hung January 27th, but a bill of exception was filed and a stay of execution granted.

The grounds of appeal are that the trial court erred in stating in the presence of the jury that frenzy, caused by jealousy, was no defense upon a plea of insanity, and by permitting John Page to serve as a juror, because he was disqualified to act as such.

District Attorney Harrison Allen appeared for the state and Attorney Gen.
C. Brownell and Grant R. Dimick for the defendant.

Taxes Will Be Delinquent

The past few days have been busy ones for the sheriff and his deputies, as there are many people who come to the office to pay their taxes before they become delinquent. Next Monday is the time when those who have not paid the tax will be compelled to suffer the penalty imposed by law. This penalty consists of a levy of 10 per cent and interest at the rate of 12 per cent on the taxable property. Provided that half payments are made before Monday, the rest of the amount due may be paid at any time before October 24, without the penalty being exacted.

No League Club

That Salem is not to have a league ball club this year is now a decided fact. Last year the city had a good club, but the salary list was too high to make it a paying proposition. The stand, buildings and fence at the grounds have been torn down, and at present there is no suitable place for a club to play. The University will have a good club this season that will play a series of games with other institutions and local clubs.

Estate to Be Sold

The petition of Margaret Morris, administratrix in the estate of the late J. H. Morris, was granted yesterday.
This petition was recently filed in the county court, and prayed for an order authorizing her to sell the real property, which consists of 21.15 acres of land in township 6 south, range 1 east, at private sale, the proceeds of the sale to be used in paying claims against the estate.

River Falling

Observations taken by the O. C. T.
Co., at their dock this morning show that the river has fallen one foot and four-tenths since Sunday morning. Sunday the water gauge marked 10 4/10 feet, and this morning the gauge showed 9 feet.

Made Appointments

pointed R. R. Wallace, of Astoria, as member of the board of barbers' examiners; Dr. S. Bundy, of Medford, as member of the state board of dental examiners; F. H. Carter, of Ashland; of the Ashland normal school.

School Fund Loans

The 36 loans of the state school fund, amounting to $33,860 have been approved by the state land board. This sum is much greater than the loans granted by the board for some months past, being about $5000 more than usual.

Long Pea Vine

J. P. Rogers brought down town, from his South Salem residence, this morning a pea vine raised in his garden that is 2 feet 7 1/2 inches long. It was strong and sturdy, and is only a fair sample of the other vines in the garden.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Enjoyable Social Event

Social life was perceptibly brightened by the delightful "At Home" yesterday, at which Mrs. John Dalrymple and her daughters, Mrs. Otto Kranse, Mrs. John C. Griffith and Mrs.
Joe H. Albert were the hostesses.

The affair was given at the Dalrymple home on Winter street, and was attended by a large number of ladies. The day was beautiful without, and made everything pleasant within as well. The decorations of the rooms were very pretty. The parlors were aglow with beautiful red carnations and tulips, and large baskets of ferns were artistically arranged about the rooms. The dining room was in white and green, and here also vases of large white carnations graced the room intermixed with the separative time.

The ladies were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Frank T. Dalrymple, Miss Grace Dalrymple, Mrs. J. J. Murphy, Mrs.
Geo. Francis, Mrs. John McNary, Mrs.
George Brown and Mrs. F. A. Wiggins.
Miss Helen Kranse attended the door.
Mrs. Harry Albert presided charmingly at the punch bowl.

Miss Lois Peebles favored the guests with two beautiful vocal selections, which were much enjoyed.

McElroy's orchestra dispersed sweet music throughout the afternoon, and the whole affair was delightful in every detail, and will long be remembered as one of the most pleasant social events of the Capital City.

Farewell Party

Miss Lottie London was given a farewell party last evening at her home in South Salem, by about 45 of her friends and school mates. The party was a very pleasant affair. Numerous games were indulged in, and a dainty lunch was served.

Efforts for Pardon

Albert Johnston, who is serving a 15-year sentence in the penitentiary for rape, may go free. It was in 1909 that he was tried and convicted of the crime, which was said to have been committed upon one Grace Allen, an Indian girl, in Jackson county. The girl is now married, and is living in Siskiyou Co., under the name of Mrs. P. Barfield.
Of her own volition she has now made affidavit to the effect that Johnston is entirely innocent of the crime he is now suffering sentence for, and through Attorney C. S. Snell, of San Francisco has made application for his release.

School Exhibit at Fair

Mount Angel college is preparing an exhibit for the Lewis and Clark fair.
J. D. Drake, of Silverton, has been employed to take a large number of views, both exterior and interior, of the school and grounds. The academy for girls, which is charge of the sisters, will also have a very elaborate display of its work.

The public school exhibit work of the county is being completed and Superintendent Moore has asked for it to be sent to his office not later than April 10th. Some excellent work has been done, and that without detracting from the other work of the schools.

Swallowed Small Nail

Ernie Vandervort, while tacking street numbers to houses yesterday swallowed a nail about an inch long, and the accident may result seriously. He was holding the nail in his mouth, and it slipped down his throat. While goats and Mexican burros can thrive on that kind of diet, it does not affiliate and assimilate well with bon bons and dainty tid bits, such as Ernie craves. His many friends trust that he will recover from the effects of the unwelcome occupant of his virtual repository.

A New Thing in Butter-Making

Is the idea of packing the rolls in pasteboard cartons, which serve both to prevent outside odors and germs from reaching the butter, and also to retain the original purity and sweetness of the butter. Only one kind of butter is put up in that way, and its "White Clover," which is sold only at C. J. Atwood's grocery. Only sweet cream, thoroughly pasteurized, is used in its making. If you like pure butter, try a roll of "White Clover."

Nan's Relatives Arrested

Cincinnati, March 30.—Detectives Scullion and Sweeney this afternoon arrested Joseph Morgan Smith and his wife, Julia, brother-in-law and sister of Nan Patterson. The arrests were made at the instance of a New York detective agency. They will be indicted for assisting Nan Patterson in securing the weapon with which Caesar Young was killed.

Requisition papers have been asked for and the officers will start with the couple for New York as soon as the papers arrive. Both Smith and his wife are very angry over the arrests.

Remember to see the farce at the Grand, Thursday, March 30th.

HEAVY FROST DOES SLIGHT DAMAGE

Early Cherries Suffer Most From the Cold Snap---Prunes May Be Injured

Marion and Polk counties were visited by a heavy frost last night, and the damage to grain, fruit, hops and gardens may be serious. The sky cleared in the fore-part of the night, and before 12 o'clock the sidewalks around Salem were a glare of ice. The cold wave seems to have gone through the valley in spots. At Albany it was scarcely perceptible, while a strip of country four or five miles wide between Turner and Marion presented a hoary appearance long before daylight this morning.
Snow and frost covering the ground fully an inch.

The Journal made an effort to learn from the growers throughout this section just how much damage was done by the cold snap. Farmers and others were called up by telephone, and they have, in many instances, made careful examinations on request of The Journal to ascertain the exact conditions.

While the frost may have done some damage to fruit in exposed localities, it is believed, on the other hand, that it may also have done some good to other crops, which are sufficiently advanced to not be injured. The effect of the frost on the ground, where grain had a good start, is frequently beneficial, and, even though some damage has been done to the smaller crops, it is thought by some that on the whole it may be beneficial.

W. J. Crawford, who lives on a large farm in Polk county, near Zenia, says that the frost last night, which was very heavy in that section, will have a damaging effect on the prunes. The trees are in full bloom, and he thinks they will be all killed. Ice formed on the water, and it is feared much harm will be done.

D. G. Henry, of Spring Valley, says the frost will kill the cherries and prunes, as they are in full bloom. He thinks it will not effect the early garden or grain. Mr. Henry raises mostly cherries and prunes.

Homer Goulet, who lives near Brooks, says the frost in that section was quite heavy. He raises hops, but does not think they are much injured.
They are up now about one and a half to two feet high, and the frost has turned the tops a little dark but he thinks that will not harm them, unless we should have another one.

Hon. Alex. LaFollett, of Mission Bottom, says that the frost will not injure the fruit at all. The peaches have already dropped their bloom, and the logan berries have not yet bloomed.
There was a heavy fog in that section this morning, and that will prevent any damage.

H. W. Savage, of the Savage gardens, says the frost in that section was quite heavy. He raises hops, but does not think they are much injured.
we should have another one.

N. Croisan, who lives 12 miles northwest of the city, was in from his farm today, and reported that at his place yesterday morning ice was formed an eighth of an inch thick, and he was afraid that his fruit trees were injured by the Tuesday night and last night's frost.

J. A. Bishop, on South Commercial street, in the suburbs of the city, who has a fine almond and prune orchard, says the frost has not damaged the trees. The almonds are formed and are about the size of a pea now. The prunes are in full bloom, but are not injured.

Washington, March 30.—The navy department has ordered the cruiser Brooklyn from Guantanamo, Cuba, to Port Au Prince, Hayti, to look after American interests there.
